

Brief Description:

Participants registered for the Marathon may transfer their registration to another person. If you transfer your registration you do not receive a refund. You may recover your cost from the person buying your registration.

The new participant receiving your Bib number must pay a $25 transfer fee and fill out the Application form in order to complete the transaction.

Once you have submitted your transfer request, it may not be cancelled.

Instructions for current registration holder (Transferor):

Please fill out the Transfer request form with the exact information you originally signed up with and click “submit”.

After receiving your Transfer request, we will assign a “unique code number”, which you will receive by e-mail. Please ensure to set your spam folder to receive e-mails from “usmc.mil” and “active.com”.

It is your responsibility to forward this information (the “unique code number”) to the participant who would like to take over your entry to the Marathon.

The Transferor’s request must be received by 21 September 2009.

No additional time will be given under any circumstances.

Click here for the Transfer request form.

Instructions for the new participant (Transferee):

Once you have received the “unique code number” you must find the “Transferor’s” Name by utilizing the drop down menu on the Transfer/Registration form and enter the code number. Continue to fill out the registration form completely and click “submit”.

A Confirmation E-mail will be issued to you from “Active.com”.

The Transferee’s request must be received by 30 September 2009.

No additional time will be given under any circumstances.

Click here for the Transfer/Registration form