Marine Corps Marathon Announces the Wear in the World Contest

QUANTICO, VA – Where in the world will runners wear the 30th Marine Corps Marathon (MCM) purple mock neck competitor shirt? Whether it's the Grand Canyon, the slopes of Vermont, the Super Bowl, the Great Wall of China or onboard a cruise, runners are invited to take a digital or hard copy photo wearing the purple shirt. One picture will be randomly selected to win a MCM prize package including apparel, souvenirs and a spot in the 2006 MCM.

All submissions must include the runner's name, age, phone number and email address, as well as the location of the picture. Photos will be accepted until April 1, 2006 and may be featured in next year's MCM race program. Emailed entries are preferred and can be sent to marine.marathon@usmc.mil with the subject line: Public Relations. Entries mailed to P.O. Box 188, Quantico, VA 22134 Attn: Public Relations will also be accepted.

The MCM will retain the use of entries and the right to publish all photos and/or use it in any type of promotion or advertising, including, but limited to, newsletters, web sites and promotional material without compensation or consent of the photographer.

For more information visit www.marinemarathon.com or call 800-RUN-USMC.

The Marine Corps Marathon continues a combined tradition of dedication, sportsmanship and patriotism. Since its inception, over 300,000 civilian and military runners from all walks of life have participated, deservedly earning the event its nickname "The People's Marathon." The 31st Marine Corps Marathon will be held on October 29, 2006. Rolling Registration opens on May 17th, 2006 at noon EST. Visit marinemarathon.com for more information.
